STEPHEN F. AUSTIN STATE UNIVERSITY

WHY CHOOSE THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL AND APPLIED ARTS AT SFA?

Stephen F. Austin State University's College of Liberal and Applied Arts is often considered the heartbeat of our university. Our numerous programs deliver a world-class education that prepares you for the next step in your academic and professional journey.

If you're seeking an expanded understanding of the world, look into our history program, which helps graduates contextualize a long and complex past so they may help others understand our future. If you're fascinated with the complexities of the human mind, our psychology program might be the perfect match as it provides a deeper understanding of human nature. For those interested in the study and creation of literary texts in a variety of genres, our English program offers tracks in literature and creative writing. Find ways to help others through our social work, public administration or national security programs; study the ways in which our world is an interconnected, global community — our programs give graduates important educational and professional advantages.

The College of Liberal and Applied Arts provides students with a foundation to make this world better and brighter. Keep reading to find even more reasons why you should call our college your college.

Visit sfasu.edu/graduate for information on our program, including admission criteria and procedures, as well as financial assistance through scholarships, grants and graduate assistantships.

ONLINE PROGRAMS

SFA's online degree offerings, which allow flexibility in an increasingly busy world, are exponentially growing every year. Currently, we are proud to offer two fully online master's degrees as well as several programs with distance learning capabilities.

Our Master of Arts in mass communication is perfect for those looking to learn more about the ever-changing field of media. Whether you want to become an innovator or an educator, our online program provides all the training you need at your fingertips.

The Master of Public Administration program helps pave the way for future civil servants. Our online courses prepare you for every aspect of your future, from budgeting and financial management to administrative law and more.

These online courses mean you can earn your degree from the comfort of your home. SFA's online programs are accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Fully online degrees are marked above.

“SFA helped me to expand my thoughts and knowledge on a more in-depth, academic level. Our discussions of current events, politics and social media brought to light perspectives most wouldn’t normally consider. Our brains received an exceptional workout.”

SHEENA LOTT '19
Apexus
Communications Specialist

“The volunteer component allowed me to experience the day-to-day responsibilities and the unique challenges of working for a museum. Being able to volunteer in existing history establishments was one of my most valuable experiences in the program.”

KENDALL GAY '17
Texas Forestry Museum
